

COME SEEKING GOD

MONASTIC DISCERNMENT WEEKEND

with the Benedictine Monks of
ST. ANSELM'S ABBEY

4501 South Dakota Avenue, NE
Washington, DC, 20017

July 7 - 9, 2017

If you are a Catholic male pondering whether God may be calling you to a monastic vocation, consider experiencing a long weekend living with our monastic community, participating in its prayer, work, study, and communal life.

If you cannot participate in one of these special weekends, feel free to contact the Vocation Director and make arrangements to visit the Abbey another time. All are welcome any time to participate in praying at Mass and the divine offices with the monks.

For more information, contact:
